

STAFF WELFARE SOCIETY

The Staff Welfare Society of the college is a vibrant organization that goes beyond mere professional relationships, embracing the well-being of staff members and their families. It hosts various functions, including family gatherings, cultural events, and festivals, fostering a sense of community and togetherness. The society organizes health check-ups, yoga sessions, and wellness programs, promoting staff welfare and holistic development. It also conducts educational and recreational activities for staff children, such as summer camps and talent shows. Additionally, the society provides financial assistance, scholarship support, and emergency aid to staff members in need. It celebrates staff milestones, work anniversaries, and retirement ceremonies, acknowledging their dedication and service. The society also conducts personality development workshops, stress management seminars, and skill enhancement programs for staff empowerment. Furthermore, it encourages staff participation in sports, cultural, and literary events, promoting a healthy work-life balance. Overall, the Staff Welfare Society strives to create a supportive and inclusive environment, recognizing the valuable contributions of staff members and their families.
