India is the largest producer of millet in the world, Millets are the power house of our health: Dr. Reena

"International Year of Millet" was celebrated at Shanti Devi Arya Mahila College, Dinanagar

Dinanagar Newslines

Science, NSS and Home Science Department of Shanti Devi Arya Mahila College, Dinanagar celebrated the "International Millet Year" under the chairmanship of Principal Dr. Reena Talwar. The program was dedicated to "Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat Mission" and an extension lecture was organized. Anku Meenia and Rubanpreet were the resource persons of the program. Principal Dr. Reena Talwar welcomed the resource persons by presenting them pots and saplings. At the beginning of the program, the Principal spoke on the theme of Millet Year 2022-23, "India's Wealth is Millet for Health". She said India is the largest producer of millet in the world. Different types of millets like jowar, bajra, ragi, jhangora, bari, kangni and kodra varieties are very beneficial for health. In a way, millet is a power house of health and it should be included in the diet of every person. Resource person Anku Meenia told that Bajra is a super grain which is rich in protein fibre, vitamins and minerals and has high nutritional value. He told that millet contains insoluble and soluble fiber. Insoluble fiber is called prebiotic which helps in better digestion of food. Prof Sunita Verma told that millet also controls heart diseases and diabetes. It regulates body weight and blood pressure by removing bad cholesterol and prevents cancer. In the end, the guests were honoured by presenting the college memento. Dr. Sushma Gupta, Prof. Sangeeta Malhotra, Prof. Deepak Jyoti, Prof. Parveen Saini, Prof. Jyoti Saini, Prof. Gurpriya Saini, Prof. Mamta, Prof. Pallavi were also present on this occasion.

Principal Dr. Reena Talwar and others honouring Resource Person Ms Anku Meenia with a memento.

NEWS AT A GLANCE

World Mental Health Day organized at SDAM College

JASPOONAM KOHLI

DINANAGAR: Under the aegis of "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat" mission and "Internal Quality Assurance Cell" on behalf of "Psychology Club" in the seminar room of Shanti Devi Arya Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Dinanagar, headed by Principal Dr. Reena Talwar and under the guidance of Dr. Sonam Gupta, Head of the Department. Psychological questionnaire was successfully organized under the extension activities. On this occasion, Dr. Sonam Gupta, while giving his speech on "World Mental Health Day", made the audience aware of mental health and also gave various tips to stay healthy. During this, 80 girl students were tested to know the focus of control. Dr. Sonam Gupta, while clarifying about the locus of control, said that human beings believe that to some extent he has control over the events that happen in his life. These are of two types, internal and external. At the end of the program, Dr. Sonam Gupta thanked everyone.
